CHANNAPATNA MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Bye-laws framed under Section 48 (1) (a) of the Mysore Municipal Regulation, VII of 1906, by the Municipal Council of Channapatna town for the regulation of places for the slaughter of cattle and sale of their meat at Channapatna, approved in Government Order No. 3975—Ml. 113-15-2, dated the 30th November 1915.

1. In these bye-laws, cattle shall mean and include bullocks, cows, he or she-buffaloes and calves.

2. No cattle intended for slaughter within Municipal limits shall be slaughtered in any place other than that allotted in the slaughterhouse provided by the Municipal Council except with the permission of the Municipal Council. During 'Bakrid' and Maramma's jatras cattle may be slaughtered in private residences or other localities with the permission of the Municipal Council subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in this behalf.

3. No animals other than cattle shall be slaughtered in the slaughter house provided for the slaughter of cattle.

4. A fee of annas eight shall be paid to the slaughter house contractor or other person authorised in this behalf by the Municipal Council for every head of cattle slaughtered in the slaughterhouse.

5. The right of collecting the aforesaid fee and the right of removing the blood and other refuse of the slaughtered cattle may be sold annually subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Municipal Council.

6. Cattle shall be slaughtered in the slaughterhouse only during such hours as may from time to time be fixed by the Municipal Council.

7. The carcasses of the animals slaughtered in the slaughter house shall be thoroughly dried in the airing room before being removed therefrom.

8. Only licensed butchers shall be allowed into the slaughterhouse for carrying on their profession and a list of the names of licensed butchers shall be hung up in a conspicuous part of the slaughterhouse.

9. Every animal intended for slaughter shall be brought to the slaughterhouse for examination by an officer appointed by the Municipal Council and only animals which upon examination are found to be free from disease or those that are not or are not suspected to be with young shall alone be passed for slaughter and others rejected.

10. Rejected animals should not be slaughtered in the town.

11. Meat of cattle shall be sold only in stalls erected in close proximity to the slaughterhouse. No person shall sell meat of cattle slaughtered either in the slaughterhouse or elsewhere without a license from the Municipal Council.

12. Any member of the Municipal Council, the Sanitary Inspector, and the Local Medical Officer shall have the power of inspecting the places where meat of cattle is sold and all meat of cattle condemned by them as unfit for human consumption shall be removed from the stalls at once for destruction and not sold in any of the stalls.

13. Any person who violates any of the provisions of the above bye-laws shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 25 on conviction before a Magistrate.

M. SADASIVA RAO,
President.

Rules of the Kolar Town Municipal Council framed under Section 46(a) and (b) of the Mysore Municipal Regulation and approved by Government in their Proceedings No. 4195—Ml. 155-15-4, dated 10th December 1915.

Appointment and constitution of the Managing Committee and the delegation of powers and the conduct of business at the meetings of the Committee.

1. 2. Every delegation of the Municipal Council's functions, powers or duties to the Committee shall be deemed to be made subject to the general control of the Municipal Council.
3. If the Vice-President is on the Committee he shall be the Chairman of such Committee. In his absence from any meeting the members present shall call one of their number to the chair. The Chairman shall always have a casting vote.
4. (1) If, at a meeting, the quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned to some other day not more than seven days distant and the business shall be transacted at the adjourned meeting.
(2) If a quorum be present, then :—
(a) Every question at a meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present.
(b) In the case of an equal division of votes the Chairman shall have a casting vote.
5. The rules relating to the conduct of business at the general Municipal Meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply to the Managing Committee Meetings.
6. Any member of the Managing Committee absent from three successive meetings of the Committee, except on the grounds of ill-health or of his previously notifying to the Managing Committee verbally, or in writing, his inability to attend for a definite period, such period not exceeding three months in any case, shall be considered by the Managing Committee, at their option, to have vacated his seat on the Committee permanently for the year. His place shall be filled by the Municipal Council as prescribed in Rule 1.

7. The Managing Committee shall meet once a fortnight on a day and hour to be fixed by the said Committee for the transaction of business connected with the affairs of the Municipality.

8. In special or emergent cases, the Chairman may obtain orders of the Managing Committee by circulation of papers.

9. A resolution once arrived at by the Managing Committee shall not be cancelled or altered at any subsequent meeting of the Managing Committee within the next three months, unless two-thirds of the members of the Managing Committee are in favour of such cancellation or alteration, and in that case, the grounds for such cancellation or alteration shall be recorded in the minutes. If the members in favour of the cancellation or alteration constitute a majority but not two-thirds of the members of the Managing Committee the matter shall be referred to the Municipal Council for disposal, and all actions on the previous resolution shall be suspended pending the decision of the Council.

10. The minutes of the Managing Committee for each month shall be laid before the next ordinary general meeting of the Council for information.

11. No works shall be undertaken or commenced by the Managing Committee without the previous sanction of the Municipal Council.

12. The Chairman shall prepare an abstract of the business to be transacted at each meeting of the Managing Committee and shall send a copy to each member at least one day before the meeting. No business other than that entered in the Chairman's abstract shall be disposed of at any meeting, except with the concurrence of at least three members present at such meeting.

13. Copies of the minutes of the Managing Committee shall be sent to the members of the Managing Committee at least one day before the next following meeting. The minutes as submitted, may, if necessary, be corrected at this meeting so as to make clear the sense of the original resolution.

14. The President shall each year prepare a budget estimate of income and expenditure for the official year following for being placed before the Managing Committee by the end of February. The said budget shall, in addition to the said estimate, show the income and expenditure of the year previous, and of the preceding months of the current year with the probable income and expenditure of the remaining months of that year based on the income and expenditure of the corresponding months in the year previous and shall be in such form and details and accompanied by such report or explanation as the Managing Committee may from time to time direct.

15. The said budget with its accompaniments, if any, shall be considered by the Managing Committee who may make such alterations in or additions to it as they may think fit, whereafter it shall be submitted to the Municipal Council not later than March and shall be considered by them at their general meeting.

16. The Managing Committee shall also submit at the annual budget meeting—

(a) a detailed statement of all works executed during the year, or, in progress at the end of the year.

(b) a statement of all projects which may have been brought forward during the two preceding years but deferred for want of funds or other causes.

17. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to keep English records of the minutes of proceedings of the Managing Committee.

18. The Managing Committee shall, at the close of each quarter or whenever it appears necessary to not less than three members thereof, inspect the books and cash and compare the balance entered in the deposit book with the balance shown by the books of the Municipality, and certify its correctness by the signatures of at least three of the members of the Managing Committee.

19. Every member of the Managing Committee is entitled to peruse or inspect any paper or document or the records of the Municipality, provided that he does not make or take away copies of any Municipal records without the permission of the President.

20. The President may at his discretion take the initiative in bringing to the notice of the Managing Committee abuses, reforms, alterations and improvements which he may deem deserving of consideration.

21. Any member of the Managing Committee may bring to the notice of the Managing Committee any delay or irregularity in the disposal of work connected with the Municipality, and the Managing Committee shall then take such action as they may consider necessary in each case.

22. It shall be, at the discretion of the President to watch over the action of the Committee and bring to its notice and, if necessary, to the notice of the Municipal Council, any instances in which they seem to have erred, neglected or delayed their functions and also to suspend pending a reference to the Municipal Council the operation of any order passed by the Committee which appears to him to be open to the objection in law or in policy, and when issuing such an order, he shall call a special general meeting of the Council to consider the matter within five days.
